You're invited to a Halloween dinner party!

This is a party with a difference: It will be an interactive mystery. The format will be as follows:

Everyone plays a role--you should dress in period attire, and expect to stay "in character" for the first part of the evening. When you RSVP, please specify if you and your guest want to be active participants (main characters) or background participants.

- If you're an active participant, you'll be assigned a role to play and will receive a packet detailing your character, plus gossip and clues about some of the other characters.
- If you're a background participant, you'll be assigned a role, but won't be given any details. This is a more passive role--you'll play along with everyone else, but you won't have any gossip or clues which might help solve the mystery.

Everyone needs to wear an appropriate costume, and everyone needs to expect to stay in character for the first part of the evening (after the mystery is solved, we can all break character and be "real" for the rest of the night). It's not nearly as much fun if you don't play along.

Come on out for an evening of fun, food, and friends!

Date and Time: Saturday, October 16, 6-11 p.m.
Place: Rockville, MD (map and directions will follow)
Drinks and dinner will be served

A reminder invitation will follow, closer to the actual date; we're sending a request for RSVP's now, so we can plan role assignments.

Please RSVP as soon as possible, so we know how to assign roles.

Name:

Will you be attending? Yes/No

Will you be bringing a guest? Yes/No
(Adults only, please.)

If yes, guest's name:

I want to be: Main character/background character

My guest wants to be: Main character/background character

Note: We also need a butler and a maid. These would be minor characters, but would help serve dinner, etc. We'd be most appreciative of volunteers.

Thank you for responding!
