

Costume Suggestions

We've got the bulk of your costume taken care of with the dress, but we've still got some room for interpretation.

We're trying for a kind of Tim Burton-esque "things aren't quite normal" feel to the atmosphere of the house, so think formal but...weird. We can use accessories to make you look like something considerably different from a normal maid. Use your imagination!

(Note: "Threnody Harris" the maid wore a Wednesday Addams-style dress, a doily on her head, and too much makeup.)
